

GLENI is an Italian fashion company manufacturing high quality leather handbags for upscale boutiques.

We are offering a widest selection of python and alligator handbags made of beautiful top-quality natural leather as well as carrying cases for professionals, briefcases, file folders, wallets and gifts.

Our mission is constant improvement of the quality of our products. Our goal is making bags none other than perfect which proved to be right over the years and gained appreciation of our customers.

Our products are only marketed via most reputable retail outlets. We are aiming to provide our customers with best Italian designs and quality ever marked “Made in Italy” creating a value-for-money that is hard to beat.

The particular features of our products – handcraft, precise leather selection, a lot of attention given to details, soft natural leather used for lining and decorations – make every item an outstanding piece of art.

We are confident that our goods will perfectly meet your expectations and even exceed them.

The quality, beauty and exquisiteness of our products can be evaluated only when you take them into your hands.

Please feel free to ask for more information, or for a price quote for a particular product. In order to give you the most accurate price quote, we recommend that you make your request as specific as possible. Our desire is to be able to serve you to your complete satisfaction!
